AccessPharmacy is a flexible online curricular resource designed to meet the changing demands of pharmacy education. To help develop and track key skills, integrated case studies, care plans, self-assessment, and NAPLEX review provide critical feedback for students and teachers.

Useful FEATURES

Functional calculators, lab test information, and an integrated drug database provide clinical relevance, while daily news from Pharmacotherapy News Network (PNN) and monthly updates from the editors of Pharmacotherapy: A Pathophysiologic Approach and Goodman & Gilman's ensure currency.

AccessPharmacy CONTAINS:

- ▶ Core curriculum modeled on the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) guidelines with 500 curricular topics.
- ▶ Separate organ-system based mapping.
- ▶ Hot Topics—editorial reviews of a recent clinical trial or systematic review, written by academic clinicians as a critical appraisal placed into context with what is already known about the subject.
- ▶ Over 150 drug-therapy cases with Q&A and care plans that students can complete and submit to faculty. A secure instructor's guide with answer key is available to course directors.
- ▶ Functional calculators focused on unit conversions.
- ▶ Virtual Case series with interactive decision-making.
- ▶ Interactive Q&A with over 4,000 questions mapped to the core curriculum.
- ▶ Dedicated NAPLEX review from Quick Review Pharmacy and Pharmacy and Federal Drug Law Review.
- ▶ Extensive glossary of over 1,000 terms.
- ▶ Integrated and updated drug database provides complete chemical structure and dosing information; adverse reactions; indications and contraindications; patient education in English and Spanish; and full-color photos of all formulations.
- ▶ "Drug of the Week" quiz that tests the ability to visually identify the top 200 brand-name drugs.
- ▶ Detailed drug interaction animations adapted from Goodman & Gilman's The Pharmacological Basis of Therapeutics.
- ▶ More than 19,000 pages of content, updated regularly!
